Bishop Kenneth Bishop Kenneth died on Wednesday. His condition had deteriorated recently and he decided to receive palliative care only. Over the last few days he was able to spend time with all his family and was cared for both medically and spiritually with devotion. Sarah and the family know that they are in our prayers and that the diocese gives thanks for Kenneth's ministry, service and friendship. His Funeral Service with Sung Eucharist will take place at the Cathedral on Wednesday 26 January at 10.45am. The Cathedral will be open from 9.45am, please be seated by 10.30am. A book of condolence has been opened in the Cathedral. Cards and messages of sympathy can be left with the Cathedral Office or sent direct to the family.

The Dean is at St Faith's Havant at 8am this morning.

Images of the Blitz As part of our commemoration of the Portsmouth Blitz, photographs from The News are on display in the Welcome Area until next Sunday. The Smitten City: the book price £4.99 is available from the Cathedral Shop which also has a wide range of books about the history and life of Portsmouth including: Deane Clark's Portsmouth, Portsmouth Then and Now by John Sadden.

Gift Aid The Government has discontinued transitional gift aid from the beginning of April. This means that for all money which qualifies and is received before the end of March, the Gift Aid will continue at 28.2 pence in the pound. Thereafter, it will be 25 pence in the pound and the effect over a year will be to reduce the Cathedral's income from Gift Aid by some £3500. Please contact the Gift Aid Coordinator or Chapter Clerk for further details.

The agenda for the Chapter meeting on 18 January is now available.

Congregation Consultation A briefing note is being produced following the autumn meetings.

The Baptism and Confirmation service on Saturday 22 January has been cancelled. Evening Prayer will be said at 5pm. The next Cathedral B&C will take place on Easter Saturday.
