First Sunday of Epiphany	1800 Epiphany Carol Service (Cathedral Choir) Special order of service

The Chapter, members of the Cathedral Foundation and all the Cathedral staff wish everyone a blessed New Year, thank everyone for their greetings and cards and offer their warmest thanks to all those who have contributed in any way to the splendour and smooth running of our Christmas celebration this year.

The Epiphany will be celebrated with Sung Eucharist at 6pm on Thursday 6 January and Epiphany Carols at 6pm on Sunday 9 January.

Canon Michael is presiding at the Eucharist for the Sisters of Bethany at 0800 this morning.

Service times Please note the change of times to normal services until Tuesday. The Cathedral's Choirs are on holiday until 6 January.

Blitz Commemoration The new memorial stone to those killed at 101 High Street will be unveiled by the Lord Mayor, after a short service in the Cathedral at 11.30am on Monday 10 January, to mark the 70th anniversary of that incident. The names of all those killed during the Blitz will be read out from the Guildhall Steps from 12.30pm on the same day and a formal City Service commemorating them will take place in the Cathedral at 11.15am on Sunday, 16 January.

The Cathedral Offices will be closed on 3 January.

Christmas Tree Presents Thank you for your donations of presents which will be distributed as usual by the EC Roberts Centre amongst the neediest of families in Portsmouth.
