Tuesday 3rd April

From 10.00am Chocolate Workshop

Experience the fun of making your own chocolate at Portsmouth Cathedral with award winning chocolatier Fiona Sciolti of Sciolti Chocolates.

Morning Workshops for Families & Children

(£2.50 per child, adults free with accompanied children)

This will be a fun, informal and enlightening morning where children can make and decorate their own milk chocolate lollipop. See and handle real cocoa pods and beans, learn about the origins of chocolate, and the importance of ethical sourcing. Sign up for one of three children's chocolate workshops: 10.00 am; 11.00 am; 12.00 pm

Afternoon Workshop for Adults - 2.00pm to 4.00pm (£5.00 per attendee)

An afternoon talk, demonstration, and tutored tasting with Fiona on chocolate. Fiona will talk about the origins of chocolate, and the importance of ethical sourcing, and will demonstrate two recipes that can easily be made in a home environment. She will show the audience the art and importance of tempering chocolate, together with hand rolling truffles to a professional level.

Booking essential. Visit Eventbrite.co.uk and search, “Portsmouth Cathedral Chocolate Workshop”, or call the Cathedral Office to book your place.

Sunday 24th June

10.30am Portsmouth Festivities Closing Service

We mark the end of the 2018 Festivities with a performance of Stravinsky's Mass. He wrote 'I wanted my Mass to be used liturgically; an outright impossibility as far as the Russian Church was concerned, as Orthodox tradition proscribes musical instruments in its services.' And so, Stravinsky's Mass demonstrates freedom of expression, freedom of language and freedom of faith.
